DETAILED ACTION

Applicant's arguments filed on Aug. 30, 2005 have been fully considered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1-4, 9-11 and 15-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) as being anticipated by Nishi et al. (Nishi) (2003/0164934).

Nishi discloses a lithographic apparatus and method comprising a illumination system (24), a support structure (28) to support a patterning device, a substrate holder to hold a substrate (W), a projection system (PL), a positioning mechanism (Fig. 1), a transmitter to transmit RF signal which is electromagnetic radiation and an antenna which is a transducer to receive and convert the electromagnetic radiation into a control signal (para 0054) for wirelessly controlling patterning and for interfacing with the substrate holder (para 0054).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

Art Unit: 2851

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 5-8 and 12-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Nishi et al. (Nishi) in view of Ye et al. (Ye).

Nishi discloses the claimed invention as discussed above; however, Nishi does not disclose a sensor and a second transducer. Ye discloses a sensor for sensing state of projection system and the patterning device and wirelessly communicating (para 0127). Although Ye does not explicitly disclose a use of transducer, in order to communicate wirelessly an antenna or a transducer must be inherent to the system. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to provide the sensor and a second transducer of Ye to the invention of Nishi in order to improve exposure by inspection as taught by Ye in the abstract.

Remarks

Applicant argues that Nishi teaches drive circuits powered by a rechargeable battery and that Nishi is silent about power signal. However, Nishi discloses in para 0054:

a stabilizing power circuit (VRC) 104 is so disposed as to convert a battery voltage from the charging/communication coupler circuit 102 into stabilized power voltage (5V, ± 15 V, etc.) in a DC/DC converter system or the like and supply it to a circuits group having a relatively small consumption of electric power. The stabilized power voltage is sent to an RF circuit 106 for receiving or sending electrical wave via an antenna AT in a wireless system.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
